PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY

No. 94] NEW DELHI, FRIDAY, MAY 25, 1951

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER, DELHI.NOTIFICATIONNew Delhi, the 25th May 1951*

S.E.O. 808.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 3 of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946 (Act No. XXIV of 1946), as delegated under the Government of India, late Department of Food Notification No. PY-603(2)-1, dated the 21st October, 1946 and with the prior approval of the Government of India, the Chief Commissioner of Delhi, being satisfied that this measure is necessary for the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the life of the community is pleased to make the following order, namely:—

ORDER

1. (a) This order may be called the Delhi Flour, Rice and Dal Mills Control Order, 1951.

(b) It extends to the whole of Delhi State.

(c) It shall come into force on the 1st June, 1951.

2. In this order unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context:—

(a) "Power" has the same meaning as in the Factories Act, 1934.

(b) "Flour Mill" means a power driven flour mill other than a Roller Mill. "Roller Mill" means a flour mill in which disintegration of grain is done by means of grooved steel or iron rollers worked by power.

(c) "Rice Mill" means a mill in which paddy is hulled and processed for conversion into rice by power.

(d) "Dal Mill" means a mill in which any controlled foodgrains is converted into dal by power.

(e) "Controlled Foodgrains" shall have the same meaning as in the Delhi Foodgrains Control Order, 1946 or the Delhi Rationing Order, 1944 or such other foodgrains over which any control has been imposed either by the Government of India or by the Chief Commissioner, Delhi.

(f) "Form" means the form as set forth in the schedule to this order.

3. No flour mill, roller mill, rice mill or dal mill shall grind and/or accept for grinding or hull or convert into dal, or store for grinding or hulling or for conversion into any controlled foodgrains except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence granted under this order by the Director of Rationing and Civil Supplies, Delhi by or any other officer authorised in that behalf by the Chief Commissioner, Delhi.

4. All applications for licences under this order shall be made to the Director of Rationing and Civil Supplies, Delhi in forms A-1, B-1, C-1 and D-1, as set forth in the schedule to this order.

5. All licences issued under this order shall be in forms A, B, C and D as set forth in the schedule to this order and shall specify the place or places in which the licensee may carry out the licensed undertakings.

6. (a) The fee payable for the grant of a new licence for one year or less, or for renewal of any existing licence under this order or for a duplicate issue of a licence already issued under this order in place of one lost or damaged shall be as follows, unless otherwise especially exempted by the Director of Rationing and Civil Supplies, Delhi:—

- (i) Licence in Form A.....Rs. 15-0-0
- (ii) Licence in Form BRs. 15-0-0

- (v) Duplicate licence in all forms Rs. 2-0-0.

(b) An application for a licence or for renewal of a licence or for issue of a duplicate licence in place of one lost or damaged issued under this order shall be accompanied by a Treasury challan in proof of the fact that the prescribed fee has been paid.

(c) The Director of Rationing and Civil Supplies, Delhi may renew any licence on the expiry of the period of the licence and may also cancel or suspend a licence granted to any person if in his opinion the licensee ceases for inadequate reasons to carry on the business as specified in the licence or violates any of the conditions of the licence.

7. The Director of Rationing and Civil Supplies, Delhi or any other officer authorised by him in this behalf may:—

- (a) enter upon and inspect any Flour, Rice or Dal Mill or any premises thereof used or believed to be used for the milling, hulling or purchase, sale or storage for sale of any controlled foodgrains and may also seize such foodgrains in respect of which he has reason to believe that any provision of this order has been, is being or is about to be contravened,
- (b) require any person to make any statement or furnish any information or produce any document or article in his possession or under his control relating to the purchase, sale distribution or storage of any controlled foodgrains and every person so required shall comply with such requisition,
- (c) require any person to render an account or to produce books, accounts or other documents relating to or believed to be relating to the purchase, sale or storage of any controlled foodgrains.
- (d) take or cause to be taken extracts from or copies of any documents relating to the purchase, sale or storage of controlled foodgrains which is produced under sub-clause (b) or (c) and otherwise found in any such premises,
- (e) test or cause to be tested the correctness of any weight or measures used or believed to be used in any transaction relating to the purchase, sale, storage or milling of any controlled foodgrains.
- (f) take or cause to be taken the weight of all or any of the controlled foodgrains found in any such premises.

Provided that in entering upon and inspecting any premises, the persons so authorised shall have due regard to the social and religious customs of the persons occupying the premises.

The powers exercisable under this clause shall not be exercised except for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this order or of any regulation made thereunder.

8. If any person contravenes any provision of this order or any of the terms of the licence granted to him under this order, he shall be liable to the punishment provided under Section 7 of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946 (Act No. XXIV of 1946) as amended from time to time.
